RMC Events Creates 150 New Jobs in Hampton Roads Continued Growth in Region Opens Event Staff Positions

Richmond, VA Jan. 22, 2018 – RMC Events, Virginia’s premier event staffing company, has announced the creation of 150 new part-time positions in Hampton Roads. The company is actively recruiting for new Event Staff positions to provide support at collegiate sporting events, professional golf tournaments, festivals, and fairs. The jobs offer flexible, part-time hours and interested applicants can apply online at <http://www.rmcevents.com/jobs.html>.

“Many of the events we staff are in the peninsula,” said Marc Sartori, a regional director for RMC Events. “These new opportunities may be of particular interest to residents of Hampton, Newport News, York County, James City County, Williamsburg, Charles City County and New Kent County.”

Last week the company announced the creation of 300 new part-time positions in the Charlottesville and Harrisonburg regions. In 2017, RMC Events provided event management and support services at more than 9,400 events with 1,800 staff members.

“The steady growth we’ve seen in our 18 years has allowed us to build long-lasting relationships with clients and venues throughout the Commonwealth,” said Dan Schmitt, President of RMC Events. “The dedication of our staff to provide safe and enjoyable event experiences has made this rapid growth possible. We look forward to adding 150 more dynamic, energetic, and customer-service oriented individuals to our Tidewater team.”
